Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On this date I was dispatched to the incident location in reference to a financial transaction card theft. Upon arrival I met with the offender (Brodmann) and the manager of the bar . The manager stated the offender came up to bar and handed them a 1st financial bank visa card with the name T Blake Skipper on it and opened a tab. He ran up a bill of over 80 dollars and came back to the bar and ordered more drinks for him and his friends. Because of the amount of the bill, they asked him for his id, to verify the name on the credit card. The offender told them that he didn't have a id and he never opened a tab and would pay with cash. They decided then to call the police. I spoke with the offender. He stated first that he never handed them a card. Then he changed his story that he had handed them a different card. He wouldn't answer when asked if he knew the person on the card. Management wished to press charges . He was placed into handcuffs (dl) searched and transported to the jail. The card was placed into evidence and a follow up on locating the card owner will be done.
